How to Get 900 Korok Seeds in Minutes in the Legend of Zelda Breath of the Wild (Glitch)

Getting all the Korok seeds in the Legend of Zelda Breath of the Wild is a total pain. It's tedious, it's time consuming, and requires scouring all of Hyrule to boot.

What's more, the glitches to speed things up aren't much better.

They too are tedious, unreliable or patched entirely. Like the World Reset glitch. Or the recent moon jump related one.

But now that's all changed.

Now, a new, simple, method has been found to get infinite Korok seeds in Breath of the Wild.

Here's how it works.

Basically, you'll need to go to the Akkala Ancient Tech Lab. Then, climb to the top, where the deck chair is.

As you may know, there's a Korok you can activate by pressing A here. It's the same one we used in the first infinite Korok seeds tutorial.

But don't activate it. Instead, go back a bit, and press A the instance the 'examine' prompt disappears.

If done correctly, the Korok will not appear. Instead, the camera will glitch, and you'll get a Korok seed.

The camera will then glitch again, before returning to normal.

However, the Korok won't have appeared. Instead, it'll still give you the prompt to activate it.

So you can repeat the process to get as many Korok seeds as you like.

It really is that simple. No catch, just press A at the right time to get all 900 Korok seeds in a matter of hours.

Now getting Hestu's Gift is a complete walk in the park!
